1. MD-17-0137A, JEFF CRAWFORD, M.D., LIC. #18695

Dr. Crawford was not present.

Board staff summarized on December 6, 2017 the Board summarily restricted Dr. Crawford's ability to prescribe controlled substances based on multiple deviations from the standard of care in prescribing controlled substances to patient CE. On December 21, 2017, Board staff received a complaint that Dr. Crawford was prescribing controlled substance in violation of the summary restriction. Board staff subsequently obtained a CSPMP report, which indicated that Dr. Crawford had violated the summary restriction by prescribing 102 prescriptions for controlled substances to 74 patients between December 7, 2017 and December 22, 2017. On December 22, 2018 Board staff contacted the physician to inform him that he was in violation of the Board Order. Dr. Crawford admitted to prescribing controlled substances. On January 4, 2018 Board staff obtained a second CSPMP report where Dr. Crawford prescribed another 61 prescriptions for controlled substances.

Dr. Gillard opined that Dr. Crawford had egregiously violation the Board's Order for Summary Restriction and continued to do so after contacted by Board staff.

MOTION: Dr. Farmer moved to summarily restrict Dr. Crawford's Arizona medical license based on the finding that the public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action by the Board.
